Tell veterans not to work in the State of North Carolina; Indeed apparently switched my info, so to answer your message, working in the State of North Carolina isn't recommended. What the geniuses have done is created a sweet deal for the wealthy and trap for the poor; in N.C., employers can fire you for any reason--if you're a temporary you're a third-class person with no rights at all. It's self-defeating and non-productive but the system is notorious for # .01 aw
